

2011 to 2012 education budget changes 37 states.

|                           |  |  |
|---------------------------|--|--|
| Alabama                   | FY 2011 - $3.7 billionFY 2012 $3.8 billion   | 2.7 percent increase   |
| Alaska                    | FY 2011 - $1.46 billionFY 2012 – $1.48 billion   | 1.4 percent increase   |
| Arizona                   | FY 2011 $3.54 billionFY 2012 - $3.49 billionState had a surplus of $13.8 million entering FY 2012;average class size of 38.   | 1.6 percent decrease   |
| Arkansas                  | No cuts to education due to “White View” lawFY 2011 –$1.88 billionFY 2012 - $1.94 billion  | 3.1 percent increase   |
| California                | FY 2011 - $35.8 billionFY 2012 - $34.3 billion.Deferred $2.1 billion to future year.State Projected $4 billion revenue increase entering FY 2012; if revenues don’t meet projections school year may be cut by seven more days and busing may be eliminated. | 4.3 percent decrease   |
| Connecticut(biennium) | FY 2011- $2.72 billionFY 2012 - $2.79 billionFY 2013 - $2.81 billion  | 2.6 percent increase for 20120.7 percent increase for 2013 |
| Delaware                  | FY 2011 - $1.04 billionFY 2012 - $1.11 billionInvestments made in early child care, 100 more teachers and accountability. Also, funded foreign language programs and full-day kindergarten.  | 6.7 percent increase   |
| Idaho                     | FY 2011 - $1.98 billionFY 2012 - $1.95 billion   | 1.5 percent decrease   |
| Indiana(biennium)     | FY 2011 – $8.63 billionFY 2012 - $8.43 billionFY 2013 - $8.53 billion   | 2.3 percent decrease for 20121.1 percent increase for 2013 |
| Kansas                    | FY 2011 - $3.75 billion*FY 2012 - $3.71 billion**Per Governor’s Budget Report   | 1.1 percent decrease   |

|                            |  |  |
|----------------------------|--|--|
| Kentucky                   | FY 2011 - $4.88 billionFY 2012 - $4.68 billion   | 4.1 percent decrease   |
| Louisiana                  | FY 2011 - $5.47 billion2012 - $5.60 billion  | 2.4 percent increase   |
| Maryland                   | FY 2011 - $6.25 billion*FY 2012 - $6.56 billion **Public Education line item only   | 5.0 percent increase   |
| Massachusetts              | FY 2011- $4.76 billionFY 2012- $4.99 billion   | 4.8 percent increase   |
| Michigan                   | FY 2011 - $13.13 billion*FY 2012 - $12.20 billion**School Aid line itemSpending cut $470 per student and funding for half-day kindergarten reduced                                     | 7.1 percent decrease   |
| Mississippi                | FY 2011 - $3.17 billionFY 2012 - $3.16 billion   | 0.3 percent decrease   |
| Missouri                   | FY 2011 - $5.36 billion*FY 2012 - $5.26 billion**Elementary and Secondary Education line Item   | 1.9 percent decrease   |
| Nebraska(biennium)     | FY 2011 - $1.02 billionFY 2012 - $1.02 billionFY 2013 - $ 1.08 billion  | No change from 2011 to 20125.9% percent increase for 2013  |
| New Jersey                 | FY 2011 - $10.69 billionFY 2012 - $10.26 billion   | 4.0 percent decrease   |
| New Mexico                 | FY 2011- $2.46 billionFY 2012 -$2.40 billion   | 2.5 percent decrease   |
| New York                   | FY 2011 - $19.78 billion*FY 2012 - $19.68 billion**School Aid line itemSchool districts warn that cuts could force them to raise property taxes, which are among the highest in the nation. | 0.5 percent decrease   |
| North Carolina             | FY 2011 - $7.36 billionFY 2012 - $7.46 billion   | 1.4 percent increase   |
| North Dakota(biennium) | FY 2009-2011 - $1.69 billionFY 2011-2013 - $1.86 billion   | 10.0 percent increase combined for 2012 and 2013               |
| Ohio(biennium)         | FY 2011 - $ 12.58 billionFY 2012 - $11.41 billionFY 2013 - $10.92 billion   | 9.3 percent decrease for 20124.3 percent decrease for 2013 |

|                         |  |  |
|-------------------------|--|--|
| Oregon                  | FY 2009-2011 - $7.81 billionFY 2011-2013 - $ 6.84 billionCreation of the Early Learning Council - $769.8 millionCreated board to oversee and fund the state's entire public education system, eliminated the superintendent position and provided free all-day kindergarten at schools that choose to offer it. | 12.3 percent decreaseWith the addition of the Council, it is only a 2.5 percent decrease                                   |
| Pennsylvania            | FY   | 7.9 percent decrease   |
| Rhode Island            | FY 2011 -$1.17 billionFY 2012 - $1.12 billion  | 4.3 percent decrease   |
| South Carolina          | FY 2011 - $3.13 billionFY 2012 - $3.29 billion   | 5.1 percent increase   |
| South Dakota            | FY 2011 - $668.6 millionFY 2012 - $572.15 million  | 6.6 percent decreaseOverall K12 spending will drop by 14.4 percent from all sources, including the federal government. |
| Tennessee               | FY 2011 - $5.36 billionFY 2012 - $5.19 billion   | 3.2 percent decrease   |
| Texas(Biennium)     | FY 2011 - $25,379.1 billionFY 2012 - $22,045.4 billionFY 2013 - $21,883.5 billionLegislators changed state law so that they could provide schools with $4 billion less over the next two years than required under the states' foundation formula.   | 13.1 percent decrease for 20120.7 percent decrease for 2013  |
| Utah                    | FY 2011 - $ 3.43 billionFY 2012 - $3.35 billionReinstated optional extended-day kindergarten   | 2.3 percent decrease   |
| Vermont                 | FY 2011 - $1.85 billionFY 2012 - $1.86 billion   | 0.5 percent increase   |
| Virginia(Biennium)  | FY 2011 - $6.24 billion*FY 2012 - $6.28 billion**Direct Aid to Public Education line itemA total of about $50 million was cut for 2011 and 2012 from levels set in 2010.  | 0.5 percent increase   |
| West Virginia           | FY 2011 - $1.99 billionFY 2012 - $2.11 billion   | 6.1 percent increase   |
| Wisconsin(Biennium) | FY 2011 - $6.49 billion*FY 2012 - $5.96 billion*2 FY 013 - $5.98 billion**Governor's Recommendations – Public Education line item  | 8.2 percent decrease for 20120.3 percent increase for 2013   |

|         |  |                      |
|---------|--|----------------------|
| Wyoming | FY 2011 - $1.85 billionFY 2012 - $1.86 billion | 0.3 percent increase |
|---------|--|----------------------|

Data compiled by Education Sector Intern Charlene Collazo, July 2011